

90% of Me Is You

Gwen McCrae

How can I do the things I wanna do
When 90% of me is you?
My heart no longer does what I want it to
Because 90% of me is you!

Wanna be that kind of woman
That no man can lose
I wanna have that kind of mind
That no man can fool
Wanna look you in the eyes
Without getting weak in my knees
Wanna be able to do without you
Despite all my needs

What can I do?

How can I do the things I wanna do
When 90% of me is you?
My heart no longer does what I want it to
Because 90% of me is you!

You control my eyes -
I can see none but you baby
You control my mind ?
I can think of none but you
You control my lips
Which long for your tender kiss
I never thought it's possible
That I can be controlled like this!

What can I do?
