Freeze Frame Time

Brandon Rhyder

VERSE 1
Its a beautiful morning, to see the sun rise
Its moments like this that make me wish I could freeze frame time
I got a hot cup of coffee, gonna watch the world come alive
Surrounded by nature likens the innocence of a new born childCHORUS
Sometimes we laugh, and sometimes we cry
Some days its hard to figure out our way in this life
But its moments like these that make me wish
I could freeze frame time.VERSE 2
I got a picture in my pocket, of my baby boy
Hes growing up so fast I swear he thinks he can conquer the world
Just yesterday evening, he come running up to me
He said he made his momma mad and that she said he was just like meCHORUS 2
And I laughed until I cried, all swallowed up with pride
You should have seen the concern in that little boys eyes
Yes its moments like this that make me wish
I could freeze frame timeVERSE 3
You are and angel, you taught me how to fly
You picked me up when I was down turned me around and you made me fly high
Were a little bit older now, together weve seen some change
But I love you more now than I did on that very first dayCHORUS 3
Sometimes we laugh, and sometimes we cry
Some days its hard to figure out our way in this life
Buts moments like this that make me wish
Yes its moments like this that make me wish
Yes its moments like this that make me wish
I could freeze frame time
