

Somethin' About Love

Imajin

Chours:

I maybe a young boy, but I
Know a little something about love
Give me a chance and i'll show
Something about love
I maybe only 15, so baby
Put your loving on me
Give me a chance and i'll show you
Something about love

1st verse:

I see you everyday after school
You smile back when i smile at you
You're telling me that you're friends say
That i'm to young, but i'm trying to let you know
That i can hold my own oooohhh

Repeat Chours

Verse 2:

Coming a lil closer let's walk
Put your hands in mine and let's talk (baby baby)
And girl my wish would be to kiss you don't be afraid
Tell me you be mine so come on if you feel like i it's on

3rd Verse:

You'll never find a love like mine
Even though you much older
Give me a chance of my romance
I'll love you forever
You'll never find a love like mine
Even though your much older
I can make you believe that i'm the Best thing so baby keep in me mind
Repeat Chours till it fades
