Reflecting

Terence Trent D'Arby

Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the silvery sky
Reflecting the stars in the galaxy
Are you and IIt`s been said that some mystery
Is essential if in love you wanna be
If that is true then she is my stigma
But I don`t mind loving an enigmaReflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the sun as it shines
Reflecting the moon in her solitude
Are you and II have learned that my intuition
Is a guide to my souls` ambition
And I know that fear is a liar
It will keep you from soaring higher
Reflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the love in your sigh
Reflecting the u in the universe
Are you and IYou can go and find a mirror
And love will let you see her
Then your eyes will open clearly
`Cause everything is merelyReflecting the still of the water
Reflecting the silvery sky
Reflecting the stars in the galaxy
Are you and I
