Ikari

"repress the words that your father had said
even now that you are needed,
they still dwell in your head
As much as you may hate it
Unit 01 was built for you
You mustn't run away now
when your city needs you"

"I know the pain well that you must feel and fear the thought of losing everything, and anyone that you've held dear

I know, that the weight of the world is on your shoulders but you are (not) alone but we are (not) alone"

"I mustn't run away
I mustn't run away"

"repress the words that
your father had said
even now that you are needed,
they still dwell in your head
As much as you may hate it
Unit 01 was built for you
You mustn't run away now
when your city needs you"

"I mustn't run away
I mustn't run away"

even though clear blue winds beat on the door of my heart, you just look, staring back at me but someday you will notice on those shoulders of yours

there are strong wings
to guide you"

"I mustn't run away"
"you are (not) alone"
"I mustn't run away"
"you are (not) alone"
