

The Wire

Allen Stone

Who made up these rules
Who's the star and who's the tool
And who's the genius and who's the fool
Oh who made up these rules yeah
Who wrote all of these laws
When to spit and when to applaud
What's of the devil and what's of God
Cause I'm so tired of walking this wire
I'm either ice or I'm fire
I'm so tired of walking this wire
I'm either ice or I'm fire
Who made up these rules
Who's the star and who's the tool
And who's the genius and who's the fool
Won't you tell me that
Who made up these rules
Who wrote all of these laws
When to spit and when to applaud
What's of the devil and what's of god
Oh I'm so tired of walking this wire
I'm either ice or I'm fire
I'm so tired of walking this wire
I'm either ice or I'm fire
Well I'm so tired of walking this wire
I'm either ice or I'm fire
