Ender Will Save Us All

Dashboard Confessional

It's just like you took contest

Wear it like a label on your breast

Don't you see what this takes of me? A certain callousness complies

With your charm and in your pride

A hopeful look draped in despiseI want to give you whatever you need

What is it you need? Is it what I need?

I want to give you whatever you need

What is it you need? Is it within me?It's hard to explain how I am getting by

On so little from you

It's hard to believe that I would let myself

Get so wrapped into youThere's got to be something that would

Be worthwhile for me to give to you

We need a connection but you

Seem to push me far away from you, from you, from youHarder I push the further I fall

Well, you don't mind me being headstrong

But you don't want to sing along

May be it's trite but I can't always, always, always be wrongIt's just like you took contest

Wear it like a label on your breast

Don't you see what this takes of me? A certain callousness complies

With your charm and in your pride

A hopeful look draped in despiseI want to give you whatever you need

What is it you need? Is it what I need?

I want to give you whatever you need

What is it you need? Is it within me?It's hard to explain how I am getting by

On so little from you

It's hard to believe that I would let myself

Get so wrapped into youThere's got to be something that would

Be worthwhile for me to give to you

We need a connection but you

Seem to push me far away from you, from you, from youHarder I push the further I fall

Well, you don't mind me being headstrong

But you don't want to sing along

May be it's trite but I can't always, always, always be wrongBe wrong, be wrong

Try not to be, try not to be, try not to be, try not to be wrong
