There She Goes Again

James Blunt

When she holds on to me
It's clear to see,
It's difficult.
(Didn't I know it)
First time I've chosen to open up,
Not broken up
It's typical.
(Didn't I know it)
For all the reasons I've told myself
"Find something else"
She's serious
(Didn't I know it)
All the heartfelt words we found
I'm coming 'round
They're meaningless
(Didn't I know it)
Wo-oah
[Chorus]She's taken what she wants
But she wants everything
There she goes, there she goes
Well there she goes again
Knows how to turn it on Yeah but not for long
It's physical, physical
Then it don't mean a thing
I know better than to think
She's standing still
Dressed to kill
Well there she goes again
How many hearts that she thrown aside?
So finding mine

Should be no surprise
(Didn't I know it)
I needed her like she knew I would
And it hurt so good
She's satisfied
(Didn't I know it)
It means nothing to hold or kiss

'Cause she's done this
A thousand times
Wo-oah
[Chorus]I know better than to think
She's standing still
Just to thrill
Well there she goes again
Wo-oah
Wo-oah
There she goes again
There she goes again
Didn't I know
[Chorus]I know better than to think
She's standing still
Just to thrill
Didn't I know
[Chorus]I know better than to think
She's standing still
Just to thrill
Well there she goes again.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/