

Butcher Shop (feat. J.V. Bastard)

Michale Graves

Superman, I'm calling back again
The phone is ringing off the hook
There's someone coming up the steps
    Water s' coming in again
    Coming from the ceiling
    The smell is in the sinking shades
    Of someone buried deep within the sea
    Well I look down
And you lost faithSuperman and all his friends
    The spiderman is hanging from the ceiling
    The bad guys are on the loose
    And they can't stop stealing
        An evil plan,
The world will fall into his hands
    Won't stop screaming
        Babies teething
    Won't stop screaming
        I can't make it stop
