Found found found
Found found found
Someone who's worth it in this murkiness
Someone who's never seeming schemingFound found found
Found found found
Someone who's worth it in this murkiness
Someone who's never seeming to be schemingOh, but if I'd never found
Oh, but if I'd never found
Oh, but if I'd never foundI do believe that the more you give your love
And I do believe that the more you give trust
The more you give trust and the more you give your love
The more you're bound to lose
The more you're bound to loseOh, but if I'd never found
Oh, but if I'd never foundSomebody who wants to be
Who wants to be with me all the time
