Hearts are Trump

Trio

Musik und Text: Remmler/KralleI wake up in the morning find myself again alone and then and then I fix myself my breakfast in my kitchen on my own
and then and then
I take the coffee with me and start waiting by the phone and then and thenAnd then you call and I feel like I am floating
I feel my batteries reloading
Hearts are trump
And then you call
and I feeling like I'm a hero
I feel lifted up from zero
Hearts are trump
hearts are trump
hearts are trumpI like to look at furniture in windows in the stores
and then and then
I think a lot of cars that I know I can't afford
and then and then
I make it home quite early cause I hope you'll call once more and then and thenAnd you don't call far from feeling like a hero I remain at level zero
Hearts are trump
hearts are trump
hearts are trumpI dream a lot of love-books and of sex and all that stuff
and then and then
I dream so much about it cause I don't have it enough
and then and then and I don't sleep so well that's why I drink so much
and then and thenAnd then you call
and I feel like I am floating
I feel my batteries reloading
Hearts are trump
And then you call
and I feeling like I'm a hero
Hearts are trump
hearts are trump
hearts are trump
