Ground Pound Sex Slave (From the Future)

Jonny Craig

As our bodies hit the ground
It's in our blood
As they hit the ground
It's in our bloodOne night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground,
She screams, "Don't let me go"
As I tighten the ropes.And I feel the need
To confess that you're all I need.One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as I tighten the ropes,
You feel the need to let me go.
On without no way *unintelligible*One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as I tighten the ropes,
She screams, "Don't let me go."Well oh, Don't let me know,
It's in our blood, our blood.One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as you tighten the ropes,
I scream, "Don't let me go"
She screams, "Don't let me know"One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as I tighten the ropes,
She screams, "Don't let me go."
And I can unintelligible in your blood.One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as I tighten the ropes,
You feel the need to let me go.It's in our blood,
You feel the need to let me
And as I tighten the ropes,
She screams, "Don't let me go"
It's in our blood.
OurAnd as she let's me go,
She screams, "Don't let me go"
I feel the need
One night, rough sounds,
Both our bodies, they hit the ground.
And as I tighten the ropes,
She feels the need to let me know.
