Tomorrow In The Bottle

Timbaland

All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
All I wanna do is makeup
The best part I know
Broken promises
Broken weddin' vows
If God is lookin' down
Knowin' that he'd crack a smile
(Crack a smile)
How can I support a child?
Last time I had a job
It's been awhile
The question that remains so freely
Why's does that happen to me
(To me)
To wash away the pain I'm drinking
I'm thinking
I waited for the day that
Together we can find another way back
But everything we've got at stake
Let's worry about today and put tomorrow in a bottle
If there's some way that we can take back
The wrong that we've created, we can change that
Don't turn your head the other way
You're gonna save today but tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Pack it up, seal it up, close the deal
(The deal)

Girl, you ain't right
I apologize, don't be satisfied
To what we had was gone away
(Hey, hey)
Every other day we cuss and fight
(Hey, hey)
And I take it, two wrongs don't make a right
You had my head gone
I did you dead wrong
Singin' that same old song
Wonderin' why you mad at me
(At me)
Now you understand my lingo
We still gon' be people
Baby, this is how it should be
I knew you'd be like that
You was s'posed to have my back
Now we both don't know how to act
Once I leave the door at my baby back
I waited for the day that
Together we can find another way back
But everything we've got at stake
Let's worry about today and put tomorrow in a bottle
If there's some way that we can take back
The wrong that we've created, we can change that
Don't turn your head the other way
You're gonna save today but tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Pack it up, seal it up, close the deal
(The deal)
All I wanna do is makeup
Said, I never thought that all that
The love we had would go away
Now there's nothing left that you can say
That's the way shit gonna be the same
'Cause my back against the wall
Now the conclusion to the story is the same
I was your bread and butter

Like girl, I put you on
Now that I want that lovin' back
Why's the relationship so gone
Like we established the fact
That you was wrong from the get
How am I s'posed to fly in my ex
From Tallahassee and back
When a girl is scared of heights
Said, have you seen them jets?
Now put her in the back
When the first class got delayed the snacks
People can blame my past
People can kiss my ass
I'm at a loss for words
Chad gon' sing the rest
I'm waitin' for the day that
Together we can find a way back
But everything we've got at stake
Let's worry about today and put tomorrow in a bottle
If there's some way that we can take back
The wrong that we've created, we can change that
Don't turn your head the other way
You're gonna save today but tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Let's put tomorrow in a bottle
Pack it up, seal it up, close the deal
(The deal)
All I wanna do is makeup
