Impossible

Something for Kate

Don't listen too hard to the beating of your wings
Or you might fall
You only do what you do 'cause a part of you believes
That you're here at allBut something reminds you
And sometimes I can hear it tooAnd I don't wanna be the rain
Falling on this impossible parade
As sure as I can be of anything
I will be so sure about this impossible thingAnd I'm hiding out when the chameleon appears
She comes around
With a werewolf mood swing from a chandelier
And I hit the groundTo something reminds me
It's a full moon shiveringAnd I don't wanna be the rain
Falling on her impossible parade
As sure as I can believe in anything
I will bite my tongue & believe in impossible thingsYeah I will bite my tongue
And believe in impossible things
Yeah, I will bite my tongueI saw the were, I saw the full
I saw the were, I saw the full moon
I saw, I saw, I saw the full moon
I saw, I saw, I saw the werewolf
