

Only Heaven

Steven Tyler

You're more than a miracle
An answer to a prayer You heal the broken heart
In need of much repair Ah yeah, only heaven could've laid you in my arms
Only heaven could've brought us where we are
Girl, it's heaven when I'm lying in your bed
'Cause nothing compares to the taste of your lips
Only heaven could ever feel like this
Only heaven I was down the dusty road
The end nowhere in sight And I've been dying in the dark
Now I'm living in your light
And you know it feels so right Only heaven could've laid you in my arms
Only heaven could've brought us where we are
Girl, it's heaven when I'm lying in your bed
'Cause nothing compares to the taste of your lips
Only heaven could ever feel like this
Only heaven Yeah, it ain't nothing but a good thing baby
And there ain't no wonderin' why Only heaven could've laid you in my arms
Only heaven could've brought us where we are
Girl, it's heaven when I'm lying in your bed
'Cause nothing compares to the taste of your lips
Only heaven could ever feel like this
Only heaven
Only heaven
Yeah yeah only heaven
Only heaven
