Untouchables

Eric B. & Rakim

This is poetry in motion

Try to catch on, stay close to the host

And MC's try to make the road rough but I'm coastin'

Ladies hear the rhymes rub 'em on like lotionHit spots soothin', can't stop movin'

Go ahead, bust a sweat and you can bet I'm still coolin'

When I detain it's a brainstorm

Never the same form, every brain I rained on is warmTakin' a trip through Memory Lane to Melody

See if you could tell if these thoughts to fell MC's

Could do you justice but you can't touch this

Some kid just tried to bust this but he just missedI'm universal and much more merciful

So versatile with the style it's reversible

I get away even if I say a curse or two

First, let me bust another verse for youYour arms too short to box with Ra, so quit

You don't want no kind of conflict

Or you'll get stripped as the rhyme is ripped

Pick up the pieces now ain't that peace, yeah I'm hipEverything I said flows since my intro

I plant a thought extend and then grow

Holdin' my pen tightly it might be controversy at first

When I write the chords of researchDon't just take it for granted

When I'm gone my mind remains a planet

If I keep buildin' and teach the children

So when they read in between the lines it's filled in I break to meditate, not a peep, concentrate

Till I'm deep awake but not asleep

At the same time risin' and advertisin' what is true

Keep advised and you can stay wise and I'm untouchableComin' over the bridge, take a peak at the skyline

'Cause that's how I shine not only when I rhyme

My culture's makin' me stronger, mentally

Physically I'm powerful poetry now that could be Labeled as art placed in a museum

Style'll make scenery, now you see 'em

Exhibit a knowledge that's packed and filled with

Nothin' illiterate, it's facts I build withMy mind's untouchable which means intangible

Contents never dense, it's understandable

I study life, so I can live it the right way

No time to hear what another brother might sayWhy sell a capsule of crack I don't have to?

I rhyme and sign million dollar contracts to

Put message on records that's graced with hard bass

Smugglin' microphones, this ain't ScarfaceWhoever talked that talk, I wanna hawk

And don't try to 'Escape From New York'

Cross a 110th Street lookin' for a problem

It's 'Hell Up In Harlem', watch Ra solve 'emI hear the music clear as I get near
The hundred and twenty fifth street Apollo Theater
Take a step back when I rap I step up to you
I'm untouchablePut on my thinking cap pump the track
Test your reflex relax but in contact

You fold and lose control, so hold your partner closer

You're supposed to keep your composureBut you hear the drum said go then it gets so hype It's like nitro opponents get petro

Remember the trademark left by the R

That's never soft or smooth, it's comin' off the hardestIn effect, you could die-tect the impostor Takin' my props, Rakim is still proper

I'm a prophet, you can't stop it when I drop it

Everything I say, coincide with the topicThoughts bounce around till my skull is fractured

Inside my brain it's all manufactured

As we go deeper it's hard to find

Don't even think about it 'cause you can't read my mindIt's clear so therefore you need a ear or inclined
In the mind with some kind of idea for the style
I'm advertisin' what is true, keep advised
That you stay wise and the mind is untouchable
