

I'm A Real Man

John Hiatt

I'm a real man, I got a real guitar
I'm a real man, don't even know where the boys are
I don't want to frighten you little girl, you're so sweet and nice
But I don't want to have to tell you twice I'm a real man, I want to rock like a real man
Don't get no shock from that
Elevator music in your computer program
Baby, how'd you like to rock with a real man? Yes I'm a real man, baby, I'm not lyin'
I'm thirty-one years old now and I still don't mind dyin'
You can put the voodoo on me, girl there's nothing I can't dodge
Check out this Lincoln in my garage Kids, these days, I'm talkin' about these young folk
They're about as wild as Pollyanna after she grewed up
After a hard day at the Casiotone they just don't want to live
They're about as dangerous as a junior executive I'm a real man, I want to rock like a real man
Don't get no shock from that
Elevator music in your computer program
Baby, how'd you like to rock with a real man? Every dollar I earn, girl, I let it all burn
And if I wind up in jail well there's only one of Two thousand, seven hundred and sixty-two women that I know
Who would gladly pay my bail Now you might say I'm just some fool on a boast
But I wasn't gonna hear ya girl from coast to coast
This ain't Dan Rather talkin', this ain't the president's son
But, ah, I'm still gonna have my fun 'Cause I'm a real man, I got to rock like a real man
Don't get no shock from that
Elevator music in your computer program
Baby, how'd you like to rock with a real man? Turn off that elevator music in your computer program
Baby, how'd you like to rock with a real man?
Turn off that elevator music in your computer program
Come on and rock with a real man
