Them

Metalwood

You don't listen to what they say
Make up your mind, walk away
You don't even give them the time of day
They put you wrong, turn away
So why did they all just walk away?
There was something wrong, but you didn't want to say
Oh why did they listen to someone else
I did something wrong, something, somewhere else
Oh that attitude, they all got that attitude
That attitude, they all got that attitude
Something they say
Make up your mind, walk away
Oh, never happen again
They've all gone wrong, gone insane
That's why they all just walked away
There was nothing wrong, didn't want to say
Oh that's why they listened to someone else
I did nothing wrong, nothing I could say
That's why, that's why
That's why, that's why
