

Carry You

Dispatch

Green river flows
like grass melting
later it will flow back down it's track into an ocean.

She stands on the bridge
dimlight on the back

Someday

I will carry you
I want to float higher

above waves of electric wires stare down onto the street
see a drunk with kiln-glazed eyes telling me about a girl I should meet

Someday

I will carry you

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>