

Stars (From Finding Neverland The Album)

Pentatonix, The Filharmonic, The Castastics, The

Searching for change and opportunity
If you believe in what you wanna see
One day your pain will be a blessing and every fall's a lesson
Face the insecurities
'Cause every one feels it, knows it, tries not to show it
Search for the light inside yourself
The universe is here to own
Let your place in the world be a place you can go
We're all made of stars
We're all made of dreams
Just use your spirit and heart
Go where you want
Do what you like
Be who you wanna be
We give it away with nothing left to lose
Got the strongest heart but still the skin can bruise
Only the climb will get you higher
Defeat will make a fighter
Stare into the face of the truth
'Cause everyone hears it, fears it, never goes near it
Search of the lion inside yourself
The universe is here to own
Let your place in the world be a place you can go
We're all made of stars
We're all made of dreams
Just use your spirit and heart
Go where you want
Do what you like
Be who you wanna be
Courage can shelter your heart and mind
From the pain and the misery
That's where I wanna be
We're not stoping or wasting time
This is how it was meant to be
A life of discovery
I regret every single day
I wanted for the world to be mine
Look to the sky we're reaching higher than high
Mile after mile
We're all made of stars
We're all made of dreams
Just use your spirit and heart
Go where you want

Do what you like
Be who you wanna be We're all made of stars
We're all made of dreams
Just use your spirit and heart
Go where you want
Do what you like
Be who you wanna be
Be what you wanna be
Be what you wanna be
Be what you wanna be
