

Hold Me Down

Minus The Bear

And I'm in the wind
I am going to let it take me where it may
And maybe it lifts me too
New Orleans are the dark streets of LA I'm in the wind
And I am in the wind
And if I fall to where you're standing
Will you turn to me? I'm in the wind
I am in the wind
And if I end up in your arms
Will you help me stay? I want your comfort for the evening
I need to pause and get my head
Hold me down, baby
Or the wind will catch me out again I'm in the wind
I don't know how long the breeze will let me stay
Maybe your kiss, maybe your kiss
Will calm the weather down and let me wait I want your comfort for the evening
I need to pause and get my head
Hold me down, baby
Or the wind will catch me out again I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up
I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up
I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up again, yeah I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up
I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up
I'm giving you up, I'm giving you up again, yeah I want your comfort for the evening
I need to pause and get my head
Hold me down, baby
Or the wind will catch me out again
Hold me down, hold me down, hold me down
Just keep me for another night
