Follow the Shepherd Home

Mindy Smith

When my paper [Incomprehensible] in a frantic wind
And I feel I'm all alone
My whisper is heard when I call out to Him
And I follow the shepherd homeAll the burdens weighing on my back
Aren't so heavy after all
Faith is knowing, you need to only ask
You can follow the shepherd home
You can follow the shepherd homeWhen struggles come like they tend to do
I hope still I will not run
I will draw my strength from the well above
And I'll follow the shepherd homeAll the burdens weighing on my back
Aren't so heavy after all
Faith is knowing, you need to only ask
You can follow the shepherd home
You can follow the shepherd homeWhen my bones are tired and I'm near the end
I will know I'm not alone
My whisper is heard when I call out to Him
And I'll follow the shepherd homeAll the burdens weighing on my back
Aren't so heavy after all
Faith is knowing, you need to only ask
You can follow the shepherd home
You can follow the shepherd homeYou can follow the shepherd home
You can follow the shepherd home
