

No Peace for the Wicked

The Only Ones

Why do I go through these deep emotional traumas
Why can't I be like I always wanted to be, carefree
Why can't I be happy like everybody else? There's no peace for the wicked
They say no peace for the wicked
Loud and clear, no peace for the wicked
The angels tell me
No peace for the wicked Sitting at home, trying to forget the world outside
You're on the phone telling me there's no love inside me
What have I done to deserve this hostility?
There's no peace for the wicked
They say no peace for the wicked
Loud and clear, no peace for the wicked
The angels tell me
No peace for the wicked (guitar solo) I'm in love with extreme mental torture
I'm in love with the way you hold ya head and cry
I'm in love with all these affairs of the heart
There's no peace for the wicked
They say no peace for the wicked
Loud and clear, no peace for the wicked
The angels tell me
No peace for the wicked (guitar solo)
