

Glad It's Over

Wilco

I dont feel bad
I dont feel lonely
Im just glad its overI dont need your love, I dont want it
Heaven is up above
And Im upon it without you, without youI dont want to kiss you again can you believe it?
I dont want to be your friend
I just want you out of my life until my life ends, oh yeahI dont feel bad
I dont feel lonely
Im just glad its overI know you think Im weak, Ill tell you something
Its better we dont speak
I got nothing to say to you, anywayIve said what I meant to put it mildly
I hate you 100 per cent, I mean that kindly
Oh youre not for me, not for meI dont feel bad
Youre not the only one I ever had
I dont feel sad
I dont feel lonely
Not even sorry
Im just glad its overIm out playing with you
Youre just getting your dues
Oh, it's true, its true, Im just glad its overOh, Im sorry, I ran, I didnt mean it
Lets get back where we began
Stop screaming, I want you back in my arms
Everyday after todayDont feel bad
You know, Im sorry
Just be glad its over
Dont feel sad
We all have to be lonely
Just be glad its over
Im just glad its over
