Closer to the Start

Duke Special

Lucky me, I finally see
I've got you as a friend
It's a sin, I've been so dim
To see it too the end
Such a thrill, my head you fill
Your face betrays your heartAnd I'm sorry that I didn't get it
Closer to the startMy love falls, a wrecking ball
And knocks you down again
Please look out, 'cause I'm about
As dangerous as fame
Such a thrill, my head you fill
Your grace betrays your heart
