This New Day

Kellianna

Look before you leap
'Cause then you'll see what everybody sees
You'll see the other side is out of reach
It's nothing you can changeAnd everything won't work out in the end
You'll realize the world is not your friend
There's nothing that you've broken you can mendOn this new day I found my fate
You know you'd better look before you leap again
On this new day I found my place
You know you'd better look before you leap againStop before you rush
Before you try to make that final push
Know your best will never be enough
It's nothing you can changeAnd I will sit here watching as you chase
Knowing that it's fools gold all the way
Saying you should leave it all to fateIt's up to you on this new day
All the seeds you've sown you should have thrown away
Nothing will grow, you're in the shade
And you will stay there aloneOn this new day I found my fate
You know you'd better look before you leap again
On this new day I found my place
You know you'd better look before you leap againYou've gotta make them see it
You've gotta make them mean it
You've gotta make them see it
See you mean itBreak these feelings
Beat these demons
Just keep dreaming
Just keep on breathingYou've gotta break these feelings
Beat these demons
Just keep dreaming
Keep on breathingYou've gotta fight these feelings
Gotta see I mean it
