Every Little Bit Of My Heart

Head East

Gave you money, bought you things
Gave you lovin' without any strings
So when you left me, you could have left
A little bit of my heartTook you places, saw bright city lights
Make good lovin', ooh so many nights
But when you left me, you left
With every bit of my heartOoh, I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leaveI called up your number, you're never there
You drive me crazy but you don't even care
Because you left me
You've taken every bit of my heartAnother night dressed in red
You couldn't care if I'm alive or dead
You keep me hangin'
With every bit of my heart, whoa oohI know what you're lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leaveOoh, when you were leavin', I just said goodbye
I tried everything I knew to change your mind
Maybe I'll see you again, another time
Until then you know where I can be foundOoh, I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leaveGave you money, bought you things
Gave you lovin' without any strings
So when you left me, you could've left
A little bit of my heartTook you places, saw bright city lights
Made good lovin', ooh, so many nights
But still you left me and you left
With every bit of my heartOoh, I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leaveOoh, I know what you were lookin' for
I tried my best to please
With every whim that your heart desired
But it was not enough, you decided to leave
