Do You Want To Come With?

Stephen Fretwell

Green eyed monsters on the shore,
Playing hand in hand,
I'd love to give them all they need,
And leave them dancing hand in hand,
I'm going away,
I'm going away,
Where the wind beats heavy on the sand,
Do you want to come with?

Silly green eyed monsters on the shore,
Playing holding hands
I'd love to give them what they really need,
And leave them all dancing hand in hand,
I'm going away,
I'm going away,
Where the wind beats heavy on the sand,
Do you want to come with?
Do you want to come with?
