

Babe

Emigrate

You're so pure, so sure again
Whatever you do, we will laugh again
I'm like you, a fool again
Whenever I fell, I got up again Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes
Babe, don't be ashamed Find your way and lose again
Wherever you are, you can choose again
Your heart will break and heal again
And one day will come when you believe again Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes
Babe, don't be ashamed
Babe, you don't have to be afraid in my eyes
Babe, I'm so glad that you stayed
