Epidermis Girl

Bleach

Sweetness whispers nothings in my ear
Nothing is exactly what I hear
With a glaze she gazes into space
Is there nothing more? There must be something moreI can see that beauty is more than skin
My infatuation leads me to sin
Give me vision past the epidermis girl
Is there nothing more? There must be something moreI find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper loveSweetness whispers nothings in my ear
Nothing is exactly what I hear
Give me vision past the epidermis girl
Is there nothing more? There must be something moreI find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper loveI find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I need a deeper love, I need a deeper love
I need a deeper love, I need a deeper love
