

Foreboding

Ivory Tower

You wonder if you like the way
He's playing with your feelings
You know that it is not the way
 You actually wanted
There's something in your mind
 That keeps you safe and warm
 The mystery of foreboding
 Something's going on
 The tide has turned
You trust your inner voice that's sayingHold on to your dreams
 Whan all your feelings are
 Raging like thunderYou wonder if she's really
 What she pretends to be
 Memories of broken love
 Hope of eternity
 Enchanted by the moment
 The new
 But something's going on
 The tide has turned
You trust your inner voice that's sayingHold on to your dreams
 Whan all your feelings are
 Raging like thunderOut in your world and your universe
 Try to find out what remains at last
 Buils up a wall just to let them know
 You can see through their brilliant show
Run away from nightmaresHold on to your dreams
 Whan all your feelings are
 Raging like thunder
