Satan Is a Lady

Steriogram

Well i look like Jesus but i act like Satan hypocrisy growing, contradiction is showing exercise the grace, simplicity but details of people make me run instantly Don't just say what you want, say what you mean.
Well i look like Jesus but i act like Satan i worship the lord but I'm endorsed by the devil love god almighty turn to Beelzebub I'm gonna run stop sing like a rebel all mixed up cause i danced with the devil she was tough a whole another level burned my boots on the Beelzebub well i look like Jesus but i act like Satan my cover is blown opposition is known i don't know how i got to this point but i think i feel the balance creeping into my thoughts.
Don't stay, but take me away.
I've got to be here for five more million days I'm not a red head, I'm paying the rent but i've got to be honest worth your way.
