

You Are the Devil

Twin Atlantic

black heart, high speed your sickness is the thing i need bad calls, street ... your evil brings me to my kneesthere's nothing left so lets call it an accident got no direction, got no time for the ambulancenow I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all paved in gold paved in blood I give you controlnow I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
c-c-c-controlyou are the devil you'll never finish me
I'm the next levelwe'll call it an accidentso sweet, sirens scream honey drippin' from your lip i can't handle it hot head, cool breeze sparks flying from the engine that's underneaththere's nothing left so lets call it an accident got no direction, got no time for the ambulancenow I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
I'm the next levelwe can forget it I'm not taking the punishment no point in counting when i know that the moneys spentyou are the devil and i am the accident you are the devil i amy you are the devil
you'll never finish me
I'm the next level
you'll never finish me
you are the devil
you are the devil
you are the devil
