

Destroyer of Senses

Shadows Fall

The sweet taste of self destruction
Waves of purity wash away the memories I keep on falling off
I keep on falling off The agents of change will dissolve
Into the fabric of our very existence I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind Giver of life destroyer of senses
I invoke!, I invoke!
Giver of life destroyer of senses
I invoke!
Giver of life destroyer of senses
I invoke! The sweet taste of self destruction
Waves of purity wash away the memories I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
