Time Travelling Blues

Orange Goblin

Oh baby, my time has come
I'm gonna step aboard this ship today and head for the sun
Don't know what I'll see there
Don't know what I'll find
Baby, I'll be happy if I find a peace of mindTime travel, it's been getting me down
I've been gone so long, I don't ever think I'm comin' down
I've seen tomorrow and I've seen yesterday
Will I see your face again, baby?
You know I just can't say, oh, no, noNo I just can't say
Baby, I'm comin' down, I'm comin' down
No I just can't say, baby
But I'm comin' down, yeah, I'm comin' downOh, won't you take me away, baby
Take me away, away, away, yeahWill we see the sunshine, baby?
Will we ride the skies?
Will we find tomorrow, baby?
Will we travel time?Will we see the sunshine, baby?
Will we ride the skies?
Will we find tomorrow, baby?
Will we travel time?We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna flyWe own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna flyWe own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna flyWe own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna flyWe own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
We own the sun, we own the sky
We own tomorrow and we wanna fly
