

Suddenly (Wideline Club Mix)

LeAnn Rimes

It's Independence Day I'm free
And it's a strange place to be
I'm gonna break these chains
Unleash the changes in me I see an endless road
I feel the restless wind
I've lost the fear inside
'Cause I've got no choice
But to live or die Suddenly, you're in this fight alone
Steppin' out into the great unknown
And the night's the hardest time
When the doubts run through your mind
'Cause suddenly, you find yourself alone
And suddenly, you find yourself In an empty room
With a suitcase on the floor
It'll be daylight soon
I'm gonna wage my private war Who's watchin' over me?
Must be a guardian angel
I just need time to breathe
And give my life the best of me Suddenly, you're in this fight alone
Steppin' out into the great unknown
And the night's the hardest time
When the doubts run through your mind
'Cause suddenly you find your self alone
You find yourself alone, suddenly, you find yourself Suddenly you're in this fight
Steppin' out and then And then suddenly, you're in this fight alone
Steppin' out into the great unknown
And the night's the hardest time
When the doubts run through your mind
'Cause suddenly, you find your self alone
You find yourself alone, suddenly, you find yourself alone Steppin' out into the great unknown
And the night's the hardest time
When the doubts run through your mind
'Cause suddenly you find your self alone
You find yourself alone, suddenly, I found myself
