Breathe in deep and let me know
Let me know what you've been thinking
Cause you've been screaming out my name and now your
Losing sleep and letting go
And you don't have the answers (answers)
To help you through this time
And now you're leaving me behindDo you think that you don't need this anymore?
Would you throw it all away?
Just to see yourself stand tall
Cause you've been dying (dying)
Now you're lying to save yourselfThere's a reason why you feel this way
You're always holding out on the things that matter most
The things that make you who you are
Do you really think you need to know where this will end?
Will it change a single thing?
Do you feel better now?
Cause now you're leaving me behindDo you think that you don't need this anymore?
Would you throw it all away?
Just to see yourself stand tall
Cause you've been dying (dying)
Now you're lying to save yourself
Save yourself
You've been dying (dying)
Now you're lying to save yourselfDon't you wish everything could be this easy (easy)
Everything is fine
Don't you wish everything could be this easy (easy)
Everything is fine and now you're leaving me behindDo you think that you don't need this anymore?
Would you throw it all away?
Just to see yourself stand tall
Cause you've been dying (dying)
Now you're lying to save yourself
Save yourself
You've been dying (dying)
Now you're lying to save yourself
