Hold On

Kim Wilde

Written by kim wilde & tony swainIn the day I can smile though I wanna die
I hold on, hold on
I can keep it together for a little while
And be strong, so strong
But when the sun goes down and I'm all alone
I haven't the strength to fight
That's when my tears give into the night
Tell me how, how much loneliness can one heart take
Without the chance that it will break in two
And why I'm holding on to a love that has gone
Tell me how to carry onI believed that meeting you would be my destiny
Your love would come to set me free
So why am I left standing here alone
Won't you please come and take me homeTears give into the night
In the day I can smile though I wanna die
Tears give into the night
I can keep it together for a litttle while
In the day I can smile though I wanna die
