Bring Back the Love (Original Mix)

Mike Candys

My tears ran dry when you said goodbye
Yeah, almost cried an ocean
And sleepless nights feeling dead inside
'Cause you've torn my heart wide open You're like an angel
Without the halo
You give and take it awayBut I'm still faithful, I'm on my knees and I pray Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the loveI'm dying, won't you Girl, set me free, you're all I need Never gonna give upSo baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
