Girl and the Sea

The Presets

Tonight the
Tonight the hills are watching her
As she runs towards the sea
Yeah, she runs so she be freeAnd of all the friends and enemies
She's made along the way
They are no where in her thoughts
As she dives beneath the wavesAnd he's the one
That you've seen sometimes on TV
And his shirt is on the ground
While he's tackled by policeAnd the parcel that he throws
Across the bridge into the creek
It'll flow towards the sea
It will meet with her tomorrowNo place, some time
We'll clear our eyes
And when you're down
I'll come aroundAnd all the places
She's been along the way
Flames are licking at their walls
Night glows with their remainsFrom far away, the animals come
Gather round to see
But she knows not how they feel
And she knows not what it meansWhen she was young
We'd ask her what she'd like to be
And she'd close her eyes and dream
Now we're no where in her thoughts
As she dives beneath the wavesA place I've found
Could be all ours
But I've seen where
You would rather be
