

Captain Howdy

Broken Hope

Oh, it's so nice to see you all inside my dreamy little world
And it's so nice to be with all you lovely little boys and girls
 Make yourselves comfortable, my place is so divine
Don't you think I'm wonderful? Say yes, you're on my timeStay away
 From Captain Howdy
 Stay away
From Captain HowdyDon't try to leave the doors are locked and only I have got the key
 Forget the windows, they're nailed shut and boarded up, so you can't see
 You'll love the light show, oh, I'm sure you'll think it's swell
 When they go off your welcome to my living hellStay away
 From Captain Howdy
 Stay away
From Captain HowdyCome here my sweet
 Let me help you with that
There that's betterI'm overjoyed at all the games I'm playing here with you today
 But I'm so sad the party's over and we can no longer play
 You think you're going home to your own little bed
 But that's impossible you can't sleep when your deadStay away
 From Captain Howdy
 Stay away
From Captain HowdyStay away
 From Captain Howdy
 Stay away
From Captain HowdyStay away
 From Captain Howdy
 Stay away
 From Captain Howdy
