

Look Me In the Eye Sister (feat. Jess Larrabee)

Groove Armada

You say you don't need them
But when you don't need them
You send them off
Yeah, you send them off Do what you think you should do
Leave them like you said you would do
But you never stop
It's how you are Better fight
You better fight, yeah
You better fight
If you, if you stand up Look me in the eye, sister
We're just mocked by doofus
I am a stranger
Giving it up against the wall
Up against the wall
Up against the wall You don't own me
Oh, you don't let it be
Just 'cause you're lost
Don't cut off your arm Before it comes now
Before it comes down
Before it comes down
Are you ready for Look me in the eye, sister
We're just mocked by doofus
I am a stranger
Giving it up against the wall Up against the wall
Up against the wall
Up against the wall
Up against the Before it comes down
Before it comes down
Before it comes down
Are you ready for
Ready for Don't you blame it on me
Don't you blame it on me Look me in the eye, sister
We're just mocked by doofus
I am a stranger
Giving it up against the wall Up against the wall
Up against the wall
Up against the wall
Up against the I think you know about it
Think you know about it

Think you know about it
Think you know about it
Think you know
Think you know, oh, oh Look me in the eye, sister
Look me in the eye, sister
Think you know about it
Think you know about it Up against the wall
Up against the Up against the wall
Up against the
