Feet

Rubber Duc

Oh Hailey, the battles in my head
I need to tell you, I look away instead
I'm too shy babe, I'm too shy babe for you

I'm in the corner, you're outside my square
I'm just a shadow, but all i do is stay
I'm too shy babe, I'm too shy babe for you
I'm stuck in signs, I can't clarify this
I'm terrified to tell you I need you, to tell you
When you cannot breathe, I'll let you borrow
The breath in my lungs, when your lungs are hollow
Where your feet will run, my feet will follow too
Oh Hailey, I took the line you kissed
It's just a while, I'm too enthusiast
I'm too right babe, I'm too right babe for you
I'm in the water and I don't breathe your air
I'm truly wondered, I must admit I'm scared
I will try babe, I will try babe for you
It's justified if I can try to keep on hiding
So when we collide
Oh baby, I'll tell you I need you, I'll tell you
When you cannot breathe, I'll let you borrow
The breath in my lungs, when your lungs are hollow
Where your feet will run, my feet will follow too
Oh Hailey, the battles in my head
I need to tell you, I look away instead
I'm too shy babe, I'm too shy babe for you
I'm in the water and I don't breathe your air
I'm truly wondered, I must admit I'm scared
I will try babe, I will try babe for you
When you cannot breathe, I'll let you borrow
The breath in my lungs, when your lungs are hollow
Where your feet will run, my feet will follow too
