She Quit Me

Warren Zevon

It wasn't the queen of diamonds that I drew first
Instead I got the ace of spades reversedShe quit me
She up and quit me, man, yeah
She quit me

She up and she quit meIt wasn't because I didn't treat her right, no
When dawn had drawn the curtains of the nightShe quit me
She up and she quit me, man

She quit me

She up and quit me, yeahIt wasn't because I didn't treat her kind
I wonder who put leavin' all on her mindShe quit me
She up and quit me, man, yes she did
She quit me

She up and quit me, yeahIt wasn't because I couldn't satisfy, no
Now where'd she get the nerve to say goodbyeOh, she quit me, yeah
She up and quit me, man, oh yeah
She quit me
She up and quit me, yeah
