Kite Party

You were a boy before you became a man
I don't see the joy
And you ran with your pals in the sun
You turned around and they were gone
AgainA sick boy should be treated
So, easily defeated
Oh, I just don't understand
So, you ran with your pals in the sun
You turned around, you were alone
AgainAnd you ran back to ma
Which set the pace for the rest of your days
Ohh, oh, you ran back to ma
Which set the pace for the rest of your days
Ohh, oh, you ran back to ma
Which set the pace for the rest of your daysAnd now, there is something that you should know
There is something that you should know
The girl of your dreams is here all alone
Girl of your dreams is here all alone
The girl of your dreams is sad and all alone
The girl of your dreams is here all aloneThere is something that you should know
There is something that you should know
Girl of your dreams is all alone
The girl of your dreams is sad and is all alone
The girl of your dreams is sad and is feeling all alone
Oh, there is something that you should know
