

Reunion

No Innocent Victim

The sorrow's only temporary
Overshadowed by the joy
When our reunion is complete
Never to part againI want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
SomedayAll of the anguish in this life
Will be a faded memory
We will begin to live a life
And how it was meant to beI want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
SomedayI want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
SomedayI want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
Someday soon
