Cherry Wine

Jupiter Sunrise

Days full of cherry wine
Telling you something about yourself
That someone could have just told youIf they were honest, like cherry wine
It brings you clarity and brings you spite
And everything but what you really wantAnd you're my cherry wine
Telling me something about myself
I really don't want to knowWhy not drown me in this state of discontent?
Why not drown me?
Why not drown me?
Why not drown me?
Oh why not drown me?Days full of cherry wine
Telling you something about yourself
That someone could have just told youIf they were honest, like cherry wine
It brings you clarity and brings you spite
And everything but what you really wantAnd you're my cherry wine
Telling me something about myself
I really don't want to knowSo why not drown me in this state of discontent?
Why not drown me?
Why not drown me?
Why not drown me?
Oh why not drown me?[Incomprehensible]You're my cherry wine
You're my cherry wine
You're my cherry wine
You're my cherry wine
You're my cherry wine
You're my cherry wine
Days full of cherry wine
