Stonewall

Angels

(Brewster-Eccles-Amanda Brewster)
When you're on your knees in broken glass when you're stuck on speed and it goes too fast when your body lies down to sleep all the remedies in the world won't make it last
Did you see someone that you recognised in the looking glass, someone else's eyes shut your mind and pray this is your judgement day Behind the stonewall
on the wrong side of the law
behind the stonewall
you know the score
gonna cost twice as much if you wanna try to keep in touch behind the stonewall y' don't belong anymore
did you cry out in the night did it carry your fears away like a loaded dice shut your eyes and pray
it ain't easy to fade away Behind the stonewall
