

Walk Down to the Water

Breathless

The harsh scorching sun seems to hum in my head blurs my eyes blurs my thoughts Time stands still for me I'm watching my friends They're shimmering now They're sailing new horizons Gotta just watch them go Just look at them go I walk down to the water let the chill soothe my soul Just look at them go I just watch them go Just look at them go I just watch them go Just look at them go
