

Telescreen

Pixx

Unresolved, we couldn't have been further revealed
They lost their minds beneath the wheel
And they sink down
They sink down Chase them back, you wouldn't let them behind the shield
There is no shelter here
So they fall down
They fall down Steadily to catch my breath
Please don't take from them what's left
As they bow down Pictures on my telescreen
Is it just me?
Your tears don't mean a thing
They dry too quickly
Losing time, we didn't need to fuss around the doubt
That's all we ever talked about
'Til we fell out
'Til we fell out Moving on to pass it by
Please don't leave it all behind
As they reach now Pictures on my telescreen
Is it just me?
Your tears don't mean a thing
They dry too quickly
For us to see
For us to see We cannot divide
We cannot divide
With our fates entwined
We cannot divide
We cannot divide Pictures on my telescreen
Is it just me?
Your tears don't mean a thing
They dry too quickly
For us to see
For us to see
